THE RENTERS.

Sixty-eight renters met at Morris' hall Sunday to discuss means and ways for improving on the present rental system. The meeting was called to order and St. Mike took the chair as president and J. Stroubel as secretary.

A committee consisting of R. Valenta, F. Skalsky, V. Fayt, John Bohoslavsky and Frank Stavinoha was appointed to draw up resolutions. They reported as follows:

"Mr. President and fellow citizens: We, the committee, beg to submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That every renter rent for part crop only, that is, one-quarter cotton and one-third corn. 2nd. Every landlord shall gather his own corn or pay the renter for gathering same.

3rd. We further request that no renter pay money rent.

4th. Every renter must obligate himself on his honor that he will cultivate the land in a farmer-like way.

5th. Every renter is now requested to ask his landlord to rent him land for part crop, that is, one-third corn and one-quarter cotton.

6th. We kindly ask renters of all other nationalities to combine with us in this good work.

7th. We ask every renter to sign these resolutions and obligate himself to fulfill and be guided by them.

8th. In case a renter rents land for money rent he shall be treated with contempt by all other renters and by all merchants.

COMMITTEE.

The above resolutions were signed by all present and copies were sent to the GAZETTE, the Syboda, the Lavaca county Nachrichten and the News and Post for publication.

PHILIP WELHAUSEN.

Killed.

The southbound Cameron through freight, which passes here every morning, struck and killed a man named Joe Fletcher near Giddings early Sunday morning. He started home from Giddings about 1 o'clock. That was the last seen of him alive. It is thought that he went to sleep on the track and was thus struck by the train and killed. He was found about daylight by Charles Hoppens, lying by the side of the track near the south end of a short trestle. The body was mangled, being bruised only in the head and neck. Because of about 30 years old and had a raised at Giddings.

Mies Bertha Welhausen returned from Eagle Lake Monday.

A man named King living at the mouth of Peach creek was in town Friday with a wagon load of pecans which he sold out at two cents a pound. He said the pecan crop was not so large but times were so hard that the people were selling all their pecans instead of eating them.

There is a bad case of wife desertion here, the victim being a young girl with a week old baby. We are glad to state that the guilty party was not a citizen of Shiner but was a comparative stranger here.

In order to avoid any dissatisfaction and give all the little girls an equal show, Mr. C. B. Welhausen asks us not to furnish any extra copies for the stove contest. The GAZETTE therefore withdraws the offer made last week to furnish extra copies and none will be for sale.
